ALLATOONA VOLLEYBALL

Girls Volleyball Summer Camp 2022

All Skills Camp

Monday –Thursday, June 6-9, 2022

5:00-7:30 pm

Cost: $110.00 Non-Refundable

Any registration after May 27 – will not be eligible for a t-shirt

Open to all rising 5th-8th graders

This camp is open to any girl, from any elementary/middle school that feeds into Allatoona HS. Are you interested in learning more about the game of volleyball? Then this Buccaneer camp is for you.
The purpose is to introduce and improve the fundamental skills in the game of volleyball including passing, setting, serving, hitting, and match play. Over the course of the four-day camp, girls will have an opportunity to receive one-on-one coaching from camp coaches to improve their skills, while also learning the basics of the game of volleyball. Team offensive and defensive strategies will be taught to the more advanced player, while the beginning player will learn the basics of rotations and rules. No skill level is too low or too high to benefit from this camp.

Camp Director

Joseph Soley – Soley is entering his ninth season coaching volleyball at Allatoona. Soley lead the Lady Bucs to their FIRST STATE CHAMPIONSHIP 2019 & State Runners-up in 2018. The team is on their fourteenth consecutive playoff appearance and the program's sixth Region/Area Championship during the 2018 season. He graduated from Indiana State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Health & Physical Education. He has a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership from the University of Alabama, and completed his Specialist Degree from Lincoln Memorial University in Curriculum & Instruction. Currently, Coach Soley is teaching Health/BPE and is also the Head Coach for the Women's Varsity Tennis Team.

Current and/or former Allatoona Volleyball Players will also serve in support positions during camp.

About the Program

Entering their fourteenth year as a program, Allatoona's volleyball team is one of the most successful sports programs at the school. The year 2018, the team played in their 1st state championship match. In past seasons, the team have been State Runner-up, Sweet 16 four times and the Elite 8 four times. Over the past eight seasons, 15 of 26 seniors have gone on to play volleyball in college, with future prospects looking just as bright. Nine All-Americans & seven Senior All-State players.
